Out of the 16 nominations, seven walked up to the judges' stand and drew positions, as follows: Mambrimo Gift, Jefferson, Smuggler, Sheridan, Genet, Abdallah, and Commonwealth. Gift was driven by Dan Loughlin, Smuggler by Charles Marvin, Jefferson by Geo.
P. Carpenter, Sheridan by Watson Sargent,
Abdallah by Dan Pfeiffer, Commonwealth by Jack Bowen, and Genet by Tom Carpenter. The judges were Otto Hamilton and Sampel Emerson of Boston, and Geo. Cal-Samuel Emerson, of Boston, and Geo. Oak-ley, of Prospect Park.

First Heat-After three ineffectual at-tempts to get a start, it became evident that Thomas Jefferson was too lame to go, and he was drawn, by permission of the judges. On the fourth score the horses got away well together, except Abdallah, who was a length in the rear of Gift. The latter got away from his competitors, going to the quarter, which he passed in 37%, Sheridan following within a length, and Smuggler being almost neck-and-neck with him. Before, reaching the half the bay began to pull up, and passed the pole in 1:11%, with Gift half a length to the rear. It was evident that Smuggler would win if he could keep his feet, and this he did, not skipping any-where, passing the three-fourths pole two lengths ahead, in 1:48, with Sheridan in the second place. In turning into the home second place. In turning into the home stretch, Smuggler suddenly opened a gap and passed under the wire in 2:23—six lengths ahead of Sheridan, with Gift third, Genet fourth, Commonwealth fifth, and Abdallah last. After this heat pools were sold as follows: Smuggler, $70, $150 and $25; Gift, $38, $70 and $13; field, $18, $40 and $70. well, with Smuggler a length or two behind the rest. Sheridan showed the way to the quarter, and passed it in 3614, with Gift second and Smuggler coming up rapidly behind. The big bay's long legs had got to working before the half was reached, and he led Sheridan a length at that point, which he passed in 1:11%, Gift being third and the others close together.

SMUGGLER HELD THE LEAD from this point, and trotted squarely away from the others, passing the third quarter pole half a dozen lengths ahead of Sheridan, in 1:47, Gift being three lengths behind the little general. Smuggler did not slacken at the turn, but wheeled into the stretch like prodigious task. a whirlwind, and held his head to In his recent address before the Claremont, the wire in 2 23; Sheridan second, Com- N. Third Heat-It was now a dead certainty in everybody's mind that, if the big bay stallion kept his feet as well as he had done, would be the winner three straight heats. After scoring four times and being threatened with fines by the judges, the drivers got their nags off well together, Sheridan having a little the best of the send-off, and leading to the quarter in 37, with Smuggler second, Gift, Commodwealth and Abdallah followwhirled into the home stretch with where Addison his pistol. He answered, "yes;" whereupon I remarked that I was sorry, for I immagined that he contemplated suicide. I had become impressed with the idea from the fact that he had once told me, after a very severe attack of the gout, that he hoped he would never live to experience such another attack. His earnestness in petitioning for the pistol also impressed me with the idea that he intended to kill himself rather than live to suffer the to kill himself rather than live to suffer the excruciating torment to which he had been subjected. John Caperton believed that the deceased was aged about 54 years, and s native of Georgetown, District of Columbia. He had seen the deceased on the evening previous to the affair. He believed that the deceased committed suicide. The coroner then read the following letter which had been left for him by the deceased:

To the Coroner, City and County of San Francisco: My death is wrought by my own hand. John E. Addison. It was written in a bold hand, evincing no lack of nerve. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts of the matter.

A great many housewives are sweating terribly over the fruit cans these days. There are reasons for doing this work in many instances, hard and trying as it is. Better fruit is often thus secured, what would otherwise go to waste is saved, an abundant supply is assured, and a great luxury is provided for the family. But for familles in town where the fruit to be canned must first be bought, it is a doubtful policy to undertake the task. Better buy the fruit already put up and relieve the wife from a

There is his fatal mistake. The first thing for him to do is to learn to let his farm alone, and leave it to the care of practical and sensible farmers. Mr. Evarts has a "place" in Windsor, Vt., where be plays farmer and pays the bills out of his professional income.

The practice of Sheridan coming home a length or so be-hind, and Abdallah being shut out. leaving a hill uncut to hold up the shock, is more troublesome in the end than setting up the shock securely at first. Spread the butts well, and tie the tops of the shocks with rye straw bands. There will be no more shocks blown over, than if a hill is left uncut in the center of each. Our plan is to cut five hills each way, or if in rows twenty feet of each row for five rows. This makes a shock that will dry out thoroughly in two weeks. Corn cut before the 10th should be husked before the end of the month. Cold fingers and be-numbed hands make slow husking. A good husking machine is made, but strangely no one seems to want it. There are a great many farmers who could profitably invest $100 in a good corn husker.

SUFFERED OVER THIRTEEN YEARS WITE LIVER COMPLAINT AND DYSPTPSIA, CURED

BY THREE BOTTLES OF ROOT LITTERS. ME. FRAZIER—DEAR SIR: I deem it an act of gratitude to you, and a duty toward those who are suffering from liver complaint and dyspepsia, to make the following statement: I have been an invalid for over thirteen years. My complaint was a disease of the liver and dyspepsia. My skin was yellow, the white of my eyes was the color of saffron; I was sleepy and heavy, with headache, and no appetite for food of any kind; I was afflicted as bad as any living woman could be. I took bottle after bottle of patent medicines, and paid over $700 to the best physicians without any benefit. I suffered more than I can tail you by letter, but could get no relief until about two months ago I purchased a bottle of your Root Bitters from Louis Smithnight, druggist, 135 Woodland avenue, this city. I used this bottle up, and since them have used nearly two more, and they are the only positive, sure cure for liver complaint and dyspepsia I have ever tried; they have cured me completely, and to-day I am as healthy as any person can be. You may use my name 12 you see proper, as it may be the means of inducing others to try your discovery and be cured, for good health is better than gold. Ever your friend. MRS. ELLEN CRASHAW.

MR. FRAZIER—DEAR SIR: For several months. I have been afflicted with fever and ague. For weeks at a time I was confined to the house; my suffering was intense. I could find no curs until I heard of your Root Bitters, which were recommended to me as having cured so many persons. I have taken the Root Bitters about two weeks, and they have restored me to my former health. With every feeling of gratitude for your inestimable discovery, I am yours spectfully,

AGAINGTON THE STARLES OF THE STARLES

DEAR SIR: My object in writing the following is to spread valuable information. Having been troubled with humors and pimples in my face and body, and after trying Sarsaparilla and many other remedies advertised, for searching the blood, and receiving no beneal, a commenced using Root Bitters, and less than three bottles has effected a radical cure. I have never enjoyed such good health before, and I attribute it to the use of your Bitters.

CATARRH CURED.

CATARRH CURED.

MR. FRAZIER: I wish to inform you what your medicine has done for me. I was afflicted with Latarrh in its worst form for many years. I tried various medicines recommended by physicians, which proved but a temporary relief. By the advice of a lady friend who was cured of this same disease by your Root Bitters, I procured one half dozen bottles, and they have accomplished a perfect cure in my case. Believing that thousands are dragging out a miserable existance from the effects of Catarrh, I cheerfully recommend your Root Bitters to all who are similarly afflicted.
